

François Thiry

Born in 1956, and after a brilliant academic career at Liège (where he also studied law), he was awarded a scholarship at the Tchaikowsky Conservatory of Moscow. His teachers were Marcelle Mercenier and Lev Valesnco.

He has performed many concerts for major Belgian organisations in Europe, the United States of America, Japan, and in Australia.

François Thiry has been a piano professor since 1985, President of the Teacher's Union at the Royal Music Conservatory of Liège, and a Member of the High Council for Higher Artistic Education. He devotes a lot of his time for educational purposes. Finally, from 2006 to 2008, he was the Director of the Royal Conservatory of Liège.
