

---

NADIA JRADIA

---

Nadia Jradia trained in Marie-Paule Cornia's class at the Conservatoire de Musique de Huy.

During her years of study, she won prizes in numerous national and international competitions.

Since 2005, she has been a brilliant graduate of the Conservatoire Royal de Liège, where she won a first prize in chamber music with great distinction (Cécile Evrard's class) and the diplôme supérieur de piano with distinction (Jean Schils and Marie-Paule Cornia's class).

For many years, she took part in international advanced piano training courses with Marie-Paule Cornia as a pupil and assistant.

Concerts as soloist and chamber musician in Belgium and abroad (France, Tunisia, Russia, Croatia, Italy, etc.).

She enjoys sharing the stage with many musicians: Marie-Paule Cornia, Harold Noben, Emilie Chenoy, Pierre Doyen,... She has also had the pleasure of giving a large number of commented concerts with musicologist Jean-Marc Onkelinx.

Since 2021, she has formed the Duo Acuerdo with violinist Samuel Denis, with whom she explores the great repertoire for violin and piano, from Brahms to Lekeu.

She is currently in charge of teaching and piano methodology at the Conservatoire Royal de Liège and piano teacher at the Académie de Waremme.

Translated with DeepL.com (free version)