

Roberto Gutierrez

After having completed his musical studies at the Verviers Conservatory in Koch Pichon's class, Roberto Gutierrez enrolled at the Royal Conservatory of Liège under Longrée Poumay where he received the First Prize for Piano with distinction. It was at the same conservatory that he received the First Prize for Piano accompaniment under Robert Bléser a little later.

Since 1978, he has fulfilled the role of accompanist for the Liège Conservatory with the flute, singing, singing ensembles and lyrical art classes.

Roberto Gutierrez has also participated in several Master-Classes notably at Tortosa (Spain) with the support of the flute professor, Magdalena Martinez, at the Municipal Conservatory of Barcelona. He formed a flute-piano duo with Daniel Lambert: a flute soloist at the Royal Opera of Wallonia.

It is always with great pleasure that he accompanies a variety of instruments such as violins, flutes, singers etc.
